

Pennsylvania Air Guard Education Benefits

Education Assistance Program (EAP)

We offer all members the Education Assistance Program (EAP) for attendance at Pennsylvania (PA) institutions. Through this program, Airmen will receive up to $4,097.00 per semester which goes directly towards college tuition; or, the Commonwealth will pay up to 100 percent of the tuition cost to the following universities and community colleges:

Universities

Bloomsburg University	Lock Haven University
California University	Mansfield University
Cheyney University	Millersville University
East Stroudsburg University	Shippensburg University
Edinboro University	Slippery Rock University
Indiana University	West Chester University
Kutztown University

Community Colleges

Community College of Allegheny	Lehigh Carbon Community College
Community College of Beaver County	Montgomery County Community College
Bucks County Community College	Northampton Community College
Butler County Community College	Pennsylvania Highlands Community College
Cambria County Community College	Community College of Philadelphia
Delaware County Community College	Reading Area Community College
Harrisburg Area Community College	Westmoreland County Community College
Luzerne County Community College

Federal Education Benefits

Montgomery GI Bill Selective Reserve (MGIBSR)

Full-time college students will receive up to $395.00 each month for up to 36 months (prorated for part-time students). The maximum total benefit is $14,112.

GI Bill Kicker

If you qualify (enlist in a critical career field), you can also receive the GI Bill Kicker which could provide you with an additional $350.00 per month, in addition to the MGIBSR.

Call or text your school recruiter TSgt Anthony Zehring at 717-704-6658 for more details!

The PA Air Guard will pay you up to $745.00 per month go to school!

